Project Overview

Parts Accessories Project in the SEMA

Objective 1:

Quantify the positive impact of Accessories sales on dealership performance:

- Accessories Sales
- Dealer Parts Purchases
- Incentives

Objective 2:

Develop Accessories best practices to improve dealership performance in stated areas.

“Analyze dealers with high and low Accessories sales.”

“Develop accessories sales best practices.”

“Develop report on analysis, best practice process, and dealer checklist for implementation”

03

Step 1 Process: Analyze dealers with high and low accessories sales

Analyze Dealers

- FMCdealer.com
- Website exploration
- DIO dashboard
- High volume dealers
- Top 10% of dealerships (51 dealers)
- 100%+ objective in both DIO and dealer channel

Blue Fill: Top 10% dealer in their region

Red text rows: Dealers who have completed 100% objective or more in both DIO and Dealer Channel

Green Fill: Over 100% objective

Yellow Fill: Between 75% and 100% objective

Orange Fill: Between 50% and 75% objective

Red Fill: Under 50% objective

Step 1 Findings

Step 1: Findings

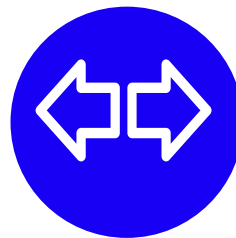

Ranking

- The South East Market Area was ranked last in Accessories
 - Though 1st in FordProtect

Online

- Varying degrees of website design, some more modern than others.
- Explored dealership sites and accessories.ford.com

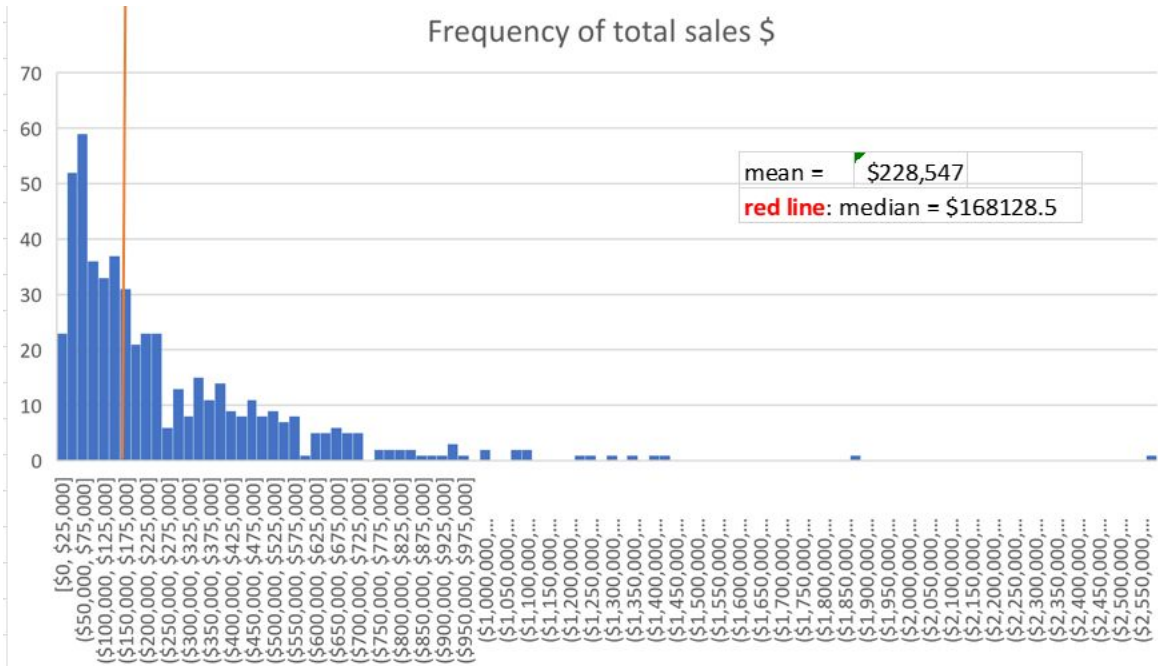

Objective

- Dealer Channel objective tended to be higher than DIO

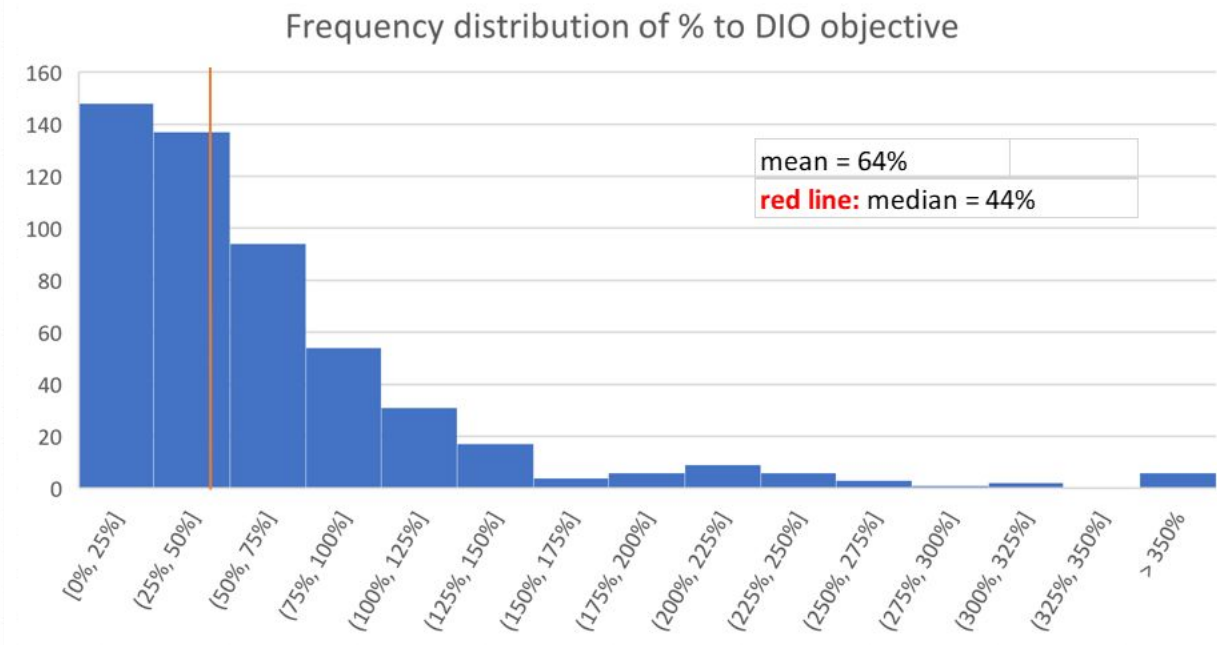

Step 1 : Findings continued

Not shown: Frequency distribution of % to Dealer Channel Objective and similar analysis for subcategories*

Eight Chosen Dealers in the SEMA

Step 2 Process: Develop accessories sales best practices

Communication Across Channels

Chats with Personnel

- Pulled everywhere
- New insights within region and outside

Dealership Interviews

- 8 dealerships listed out
- Some bumps along the road
- Talk more, talk less

Dealership Questions

- Is your dealership in the accessories business? Why or why not?
- Do you have any concerns or pain points regarding accessories?
- What do you find to be easier: DIO accessory sales or dealer channel accessory sales? Why?
- What are the typical steps your dealership takes to help sell accessories?
- What is your relationship with the FADs and their representatives like?
- Do you typically utilize mannequins or accessory displays?
- Do you take advantage of the incentive programs? What do you think of them?
- Do you utilize your website, social media, or other means to market your dealership? If so, how?
 - Is DSS utilized at this dealership?
- Do you feel as if Ford supports you in the accessories business? Why or why not?
- What would it take to help you succeed with accessories?

06

Main Takeaways

Evil E-commerce/Dreaded DIO

- Small profit margins
- Middleman with little communication, disarray
- Opting out not an option?
- Labor times
- Unclaimed DIO parts

Hesitancy with FADS and Accessories

- FADs communication with dealerships varied
- No interest in accessories

See It To Believe It

- Showrooms
- Displays, use creativity
- Walls
- Mannequins
 - Availability?

Other Takeaways

- Digital Selling Solution (DSS) not worth it
 - Lack of marketing materials
- Incentive programs unclaimed or inclusive

07

Best Practices and Suggestions

“You won’t reinvent the wheel”

Best Practices and Suggestions

Though there is overlap*

01

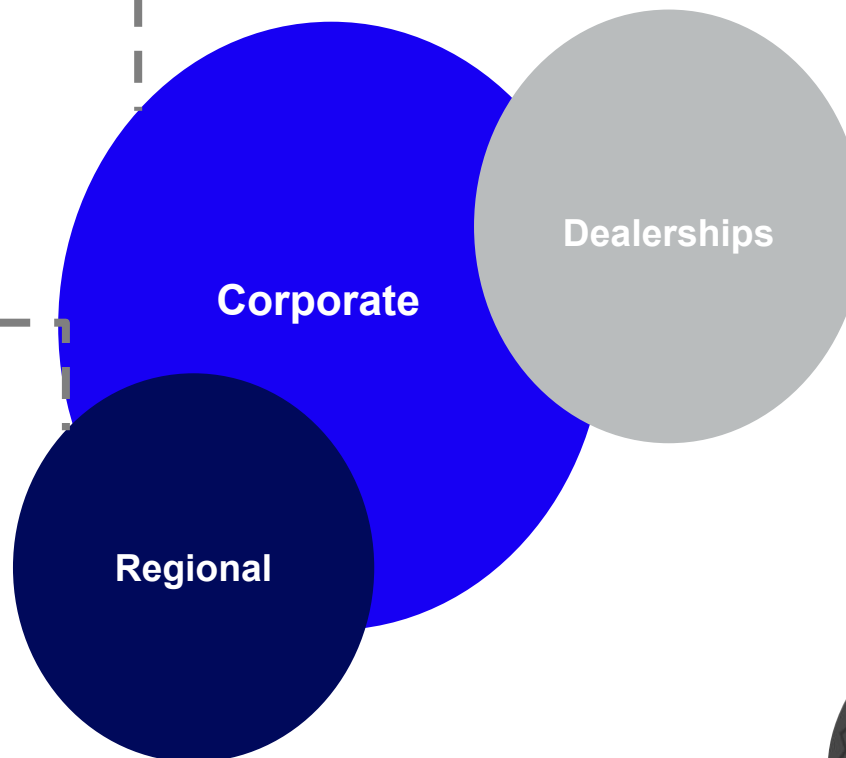

- Accessory Incentives
 - Parts recognition
- Ease E-commerce process
- Reconsider labor times

03

- FordPass
- Training
 - DIO
 - DSS
 - Product Knowledge
- Display, Display, Display
 - creativity

02

- Develop relationships with FADs
 - Frequent meetings w/ TSMs
 - Support FAD programs
- Quantify the money on the table
